

Who is a House Sitter on FlatRover?

Becoming a registered sitter in our community is a quick and easy process that opens up a world of home and pet sitting opportunities!

As a sitter, you'll look after pets in exchange for free accommodation and the joy of spending time with adorable animals all over the world.

By choosing an annual membership

, you'll get unlimited access to the site, so you can apply for as many sits as you like and connect with a wide variety of pet parents.

To ensure our members get the best value from their subscriptions, we offer three membership plans: Basic, Standard and Premium. Each plan offers unique features, which you can explore in detail on our

Once you join the community, your house-sitting journey begins!

How to Register:

1. Create Your Sitter Profile Share a little about yourself, why you're passionate about house sitting, and include photos so pet parents can get to know you better.
2. Complete Our Verifications Show that you're a reliable and trustworthy sitter by completing our verification process. Learn more about it on our Trust & Safety page.
3. Start Applying for Sits Once your profile is live, you can begin applying for sits worldwide and message pet parents directly to see if it's the right match.

FlatRover makes it simple to travel and stay in cozy homes for free while caring for pets. It's easy, safe, and rewarding!
